

Application for:
ARCHAEOLOGY EXCAVATION PERMIT
Under Provisions of the Utah State Antiquities Act
(Utah Code § 9-8-301 through 308, and R694-1)

Carefully read and answer each question. You may attach additional pages as necessary. All applications must include a copy of the research design, a 1:24,000 scale map of research location, and written permission from land owner(s) to enter and excavate on the property. The State of Utah grants excavation permits to PLPCO permitted Principal Investigators; permits are not granted to organizations or institutions. Allow for up to a 30 day review period.

Completed applications can be emailed to: kcarambelas@utah.gov. Or, you may mail printed applications (one original and two copies) to:

1. List your name and your Utah Principal Investigator's Archaeological Survey Permit number. Your survey permit must be current.
2. Attach a research design that describes the nature of proposed investigations and clearly addresses the requirements outlined in Utah Code § 9-8-305(3)(a)(i):
 - A. states the questions to be addressed;
 - B. states the reasons for conducting the work;
 - C. defines the methods to be used;
 - D. describes the analysis to be performed;
 - E. outlines the expected results for the plan for reporting;
 - F. evaluates expected contributions of the proposed work to archaeological or anthropological science; and
 - G. estimates the cost and the time of the work that the principal investigator believes is necessary to provide the maximum amount of historic, scientific, archaeological, anthropological, and educational information.
3. Provide the location of the investigation using site numbers, legal descriptions, and land ownership. Plot the location on a 1:24,000 scale map. Attach a copy of the map. If this information is provided in your research design, then you may reference page and figure numbers in that document.
4. Provide proof of permission from the land owner to enter the property for the purposes of the permit.

5. Report and data format and standards, which are required for this permit by Utah Administrative Code § R694-1-10(v)(A), are found in the 2018 version of State of Utah Archaeological Compliance Guidance, https://history.utah.gov/wp-content/uploads/2018/08/ARCH_ComplianceGuide_2017.pdf. Please explain any anticipated deviations from these requirements.
